Audio Case Study #47

NBA on TNT Charles Barkley Big Audio Button

When you've got the most beloved know it all in all of sports on your network and he's getting ready to share his wisdom on the upcoming championship run, how can you best promote his personality to your leading advertisers and other channel partners?

CleggPromo partnered with our Distributor, TNT and the NBA to produce the perfect audio promotional product:

a Big Audio Button that when pressed plays Charles' classic refrain "Guar-on-teed." Every executive who receives this audio branding product will keep it on his or her desk and show it off to everyone who walks into the office. A promotion that just keeps on giving.
