Erie Insurance Patented Video Brochure

Given all the challenges of 2021, the CEO of this nearly 100 year old company wanted to send a special “THANKS” to all of the employees celebrating 25 years or more with the company. In working with its distributor partner, Erie Insurance quickly realized the best tool to communicate its heartfelt gratitude was a CleggPromo Patented Video Brochure produced right here in the USA using our domestic VIP inventory. With this unique 5” VIP technology, the CEO was able to record a 40 second video message and deliver it directly into the hands of each and every employee celebrating this major accomplishment. When you need to deliver an important message about your company, product or brand be sure you're communicating in the most powerful way available using a Patented Video Brochure from CleggPromo
